AMEND Senate Bill No. 16*

House Bill No. 7

By deleting subsection (c)(2) from Section 7 and by substituting instead the following language;

(2)

(A) Except as provided in subdivision (B), a valid identification card issued by a branch, department, agency or entity of the state of Tennessee, any other state, or the United States authorized by law to issue personal identification, provided that such identification card contains a photograph of the voter;

(B) An identification card issued to a student by an institution of higher education containing a photograph of a student shall not be evidence of identification for purposes of verifying the person's identification on the application for ballot;
